

Tshwane University of Technology - Polytechnic University of Valencia (Spain) Exchange Programs

TUT-UPV Student Exchange Program

The Tshwane University of Technology (TUT) and the Polytechnic University of Valencia (UPV), Spain agreed to cooperate in academic partnerships under the Erasmus+ KA107 programme. As part of the agreement the two institutions have approved engagement in student exchanges.

For more information about the Polytechnic University of Valencia can be accessed here: <http://www.upv.es/index-en.html>.

Who can apply?

Master and Doctorate Degree's Students from the Faculty of Information and Communication Technology (ICT), Department of Informatics.

How long is the Program?

The student exchange program is for one semester during the 2022-2023 academic year at UPV. The program will take place from January 2023 to June 2023. Successful candidates will be required to spend a minimum three months at UPV, Spain.

Selection criteria

The Selection committee will consider the following criteria in the selection of candidates:

- Postgraduate students (Masters or PhD only) in the Faculty of ICT, Department of Informatics;
- Applicant must have defended their proposal and using design science methodology in their research;
- Approval of project topic by Faculty Research Committee;
- Ethical clearance to conduct the research;
- Acceptance letter to collaborate with UPV, Faculty of Informatics;
- Black and female students will be given priority and
- Applicants must be promising young academics (preferably aged < 45 years), South African citizen will be given priority.

Financial Support:

Type of mobility	Scholarship	Travel aid
Student: Master/Doctorate	850 EUR/month x 5 months	1.500 EUR

Application Documents:

The application should include:

1. Personal Curriculum Vitae (CV) in English;
2. Motivation letter where the applicant expresses the reasons why s/he wishes to participate in this exchange;
3. Ethical clearance to conduct the research;
4. Progress report/letter (signed by supervisor indicating satisfactory academic performance); and
5. Acceptance letter to collaborate with UPV, Faculty of Informatics.

Application Deadline:

Application should be submitted by email to MotadiCC@tut.ac.za no later than Friday, 16 September 2022.

Important: Failure to submit all required documents may lead to disqualification of the application.

INTERNATIONALISATION AND AFRICA ENGAGEMENTS PORTFOLIO IN RI&E VICE RECTORATE